

I would like to stress how important the Indiana Do Not Call List is to help people rid themselves of unwanted telephone calls from telemarketing, which come at all times of night and day. Please consider not changing the present List.
Thank You